ISFIRE2 and KJSEAS 2011

- ◆ The Second International Symposium for Innovation in Rural Education (ISFIRE2)
- ◆ 2011 Korea-Japan Society of Educational Administration Symposium (KJSEAS 2011)

NEW DIRECTIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL WELFARE IN RURAL SCHOOLS

9-11 February, 2011

Kongju National University

Kongju, South Korea

ISFIRE2 and KJSEAS will be an international forum for sharing research findings, innovative ideas and evaluative approaches linked to positive and practical action.

The Symposium will have a particular focus on using research to influence policy aimed at delivering socially just outcomes for rural students and communities.

The Symposium is organised around nine themes. Papers are encouraged that address issues, and present innovative solutions, within these themes.

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

Types of submissions

All submissions should be in English. Authors can choose from three modes of presentation:

- Full papers for oral presentation. Papers should be between 2000 and 4000 words in length, including references. Papers must include an Abstract (max. 200 words) and keywords. Each paper will be refereed by two members of the Scientific Committee. Accepted papers will be included in the Symposium Proceedings.
- Proposals for oral presentation. Proposals are available for presenters who do not require refereeing of their paper. Proposals should be submitted online in the form of an Abstract (max. 300 words). Abstracts will be refereed and included in the Program. However, non-refereed papers presented at the symposium will not be included in the Symposium Proceedings.
- Posters. Authors wishing to present a poster should submit an Abstract (max. 200 words), which will be refereed and included in the Program booklet.

Please note, all refereed submissions (full papers, abstracts for non-refereed papers and abstracts for posters) must be submitted for consideration using online submission. Details regarding online submission can be found here.
